Merrill P. Womach

Merrill has used his amazingly rich four-octave tenor voice and incredible musical skill to minister, inspire and touch the lives of millions of people for over seven decades. His extensive work as a concert soloist and record industry performer and producer is secondary only to his vast body of work as the President and CEO of National Music Service, Inc.

While conducting many live performances at funerals during the 1950's, Merrill struggled to keep up with his many singing and speaking commitments. It was then that he decided to record his voice (and eventually many, many others) and provide a valuable service to funeral directors everywhere.

His faith in the Lord—coupled with a strong will to serve—allowed him to endure a near-fatal airplane crash while his new company was just beginning to take off.

His perseverance through that ordeal and the healing process he endured are documented in his book, Tested By Fire.

Merrill's unique voice, tempered by an amazingly strong faith and an even more amazing story of witness, will fill your ears, your heart and your soul with the wonders of God's grace.

Carroll Roberson

Carroll Roberson has been blessing hearts all over the world for over twenty years, and has one of the most listened to voices in Christian music today. Through his weekly television program, radio, and evangelistic services, many lives have been changed and encouraged. In over twenty-five albums that he has recorded, he has written over 150 songs, and has become a mainstay in gospel music. He has recorded many of the old gospel songs, that bring out that traditional sound that so many love and enjoy.

Carroll sings from his heart, and you can hear his first love, the bible, in many of the songs he sings. He lives in Ripley, Mississippi, with his lovely wife, Donna.

Claudia Bixler

Claudia Bixler began piano lessons at the age of 7 and continued formal training through her second year of college. She changed directions and finished school with a law degree. However, God had given her a special talent to play “by ear” and some have commented that she is a “lyrical pianist” meaning that you can almost hear the words by the expression in her playing. Her heart and soul are in music and she continues to record various styles of music using her grand piano and synthesizers for Global Distribution” since 1981.

Claudia has used her talents on many of the fine Background Discs in the “Musical Presence” Library. Her artistry is heard on General Business music, as well as music especially recorded for visitation and arrangement time, and prelude and postlude music. Claudia has accompanied a number of the “Global Distribution” vocalists whose singing is included in the “Musical Presence” Library.

Mary Van Arsdale

In Mary Van Arsdale’s life, “the difference is the Lord”, and it is reflected in her talents as a singer. Mary shares her love for Christ through her own creative lyrics, many of which are found in these songs.

When arranger-conductor Dave Williamson first heard this talented lady, he described her singing style as “Nashville in high heels.” She expresses her beautiful spirit in the songs she sings and as you listen you will truly understand why, to Mary, “The difference is the Lord.”

Archie Dennis

Archie Dennis was born into a gifted family of gospel vocalists and used his devout Christian faith to spread the word of God through his many recordings and live performances.

His faith and talent led him to performances throughout the world with various gospel groups, including a period where he ministered and performed with the Rev. Billy Graham Association.

Although his rich, vibrant voice took him around the world many times over, Archie continued to serve the spiritual family members of his hometown of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. In 1976 Archie became an ordained minister. He founded The Lord's Church (TLC) in Pittsburgh in 1986 and continued to expand its ministries until his death in 2001.

Jon Van Vogt

A talented singer, keyboard artist and composer, Jon Van Vogt was born into a traveling musical family that as a group recorded albums in Hollywood, California. He graduated from Seattle Pacific University and Oral Roberts University and attended Western Evangelical Seminary--becoming an ordained minister in 1976.

Jon has performed with numerous collegiate and religious organizations and is an accomplished concert pianist and organist. He is also a teacher, having taught many seminars and music to hundreds of pastors and church workers.

Jon's music is always performed with a reverent and worshipful spirit and he continues to minister as the director of Calvary Hills Ministries in southeastern Washington. Jon and his wife, Louise, and six children enjoy living in the Pacific Northwest

The Lamplighters

By combining their God-given talents with a mutual desire to witness for the lord, The Lamplighters Gospel Trio won acclaim wherever they appeared.

The Trio brought a new dimension of musical enjoyment to audiences throughout the Northwest.

Kitty Loyd, Mary van Arsdale and Elizabeth Marks reflect in deep rich harmony of their singing, the pleasure that music has afforded them.
